War Keeps Society People in U. S. The war has caused a great change in the "Summer Social Register." Last year 178 American families were to be found at foreign residences, while this year there are but 108, a reduction of 75 per cent. After April 1 last year 532 families went abroad, while only 44 went abroad this year. Last year there were 237 foreign arrivals, but the conflict in Europe has caused the number to dwindle to Eastern cities are recorded at country residences on the Pacific Coast. This is undoubtedly due to the fairs at San Diego and San Francisco. According to the social records, 142 families are summing on their yachts.
